DOUBLING

The following are NOT construed as doubling:

Piano and Celeste, when latter is furnished.

Drummer's regulation outfit (consisting of Bass drum, Snare drum, Pedal, Cymbals, Gongs, Wood Blocks, Small traps and bells).

Variety Programs (other than strip variety) - Fixed formula listed below X 25% first double and 10% each additional double:

	2/1/02	2/1/03	2/1/04
½ hour show -- Air rate + 4 hrs. rehearsal
1st double	$94.80	$94.80	$98.63
Each additional double	$37.92	$37.92	$39.45
1 hour show -- Air rate + 8 hrs. rehearsal
1st double	$171.48	$171.48	$178.42
Each additional double	$68.59	$68.59	$71.37
1½ hour show - Air rate + 12 hrs. rehearsal
1st double	$257.00	$257.00	$267.39
Each additional double	$102.80	$102.80	$106.96

For each 15 minutes beyond 1 ½ hours -- the air rate plus 2 hours of rehearsal.

Other Programs (including strip variety) - First double at 25%, each additional double at 10% based on:

½ hour show -- the air rate plus actual rehearsal used but in no event more than 4 hours of rehearsal.

1 hour show -- the air rate plus actual rehearsal used but in no event more than 8 hours of rehearsal.

1½ hour show - the air rate plus actual rehearsal used but in no event more than 12 hours of rehearsal.

For each additional 15 minutes in excess of 1 ½ hours -- the air rate plus actual rehearsal used but in no event greater than two hours for each 15 minutes.

The doubling fees shall be paid for each additional instrument requiring a doubling fee that the musician is directed to bring to the engagement, whether or not used.

If in addition to the normal sound of an instrument, an electronic device (i.e., multiplex, divider, maestro, multiplier of octaves) is used to simulate other instrumental sounds, such use shall be construed as a double.

ELECTRONIC MUSICAL DEVICES

Musicians employed to play electronic musical devices other than on a "package deal" basis, shall be paid either at the existing rates set forth in Exhibit IA (hereinafter referred to as "real time rates"), or at the following hourly rates (hereinafter referred to as "multi-tracking rates"):

1 musician..... $268.75 (and $268.75 effective 2/1/03 and $274.10
effective 2/1/04)

2 or more musicians..... $234.06 each (and $234.06 effective 2/1/03 and $238.75
effective 2/1/04)

The foregoing rates include all electronic and acoustical doubles and all over-dubs. With respect to each session, we shall have the right to designate whether such musician is to be paid under the real time rates or at the foregoing multi-tracking rates. We shall make such election with respect to each such musician employed at the time of the call.

In the event we choose to pay the musician under the multi-tracking rates:

- (a) The musician shall be paid for a minimum of 3 hours.
- (b) A 1 hour meal period shall be called not later than 6 hours after reporting for work. Subsequent meal periods shall be called no later than 6 hours after the expiration of the previous meal period. The penalty for delayed meals shall be a straight time allowance at the scheduled regular basic hourly real time rate for the length of the delay, but not less than ½ hour.
- (c) Work in excess of 10 hours, excluding meal periods, shall be paid at the rate of an additional 50%, prorated in 15 minute increments.
- (d) When required to work between the hours of midnight and 8:00 a.m., the musician shall be paid an additional 50% of the applicable hourly rate.
